Like other bands performing here this weekend, the Capitol Pops Concert Band shares a history of community entertainment for several years, interrupted by the pandemic, but emerging with renewed enthusiasm. Until last year its reputation was built on playing familiar popular and patriotic tunes. That remains, but today's band is also challenged to increase diversity in programming, style and sound. This year's selections highlight the richness of America's vast concert band repertoire. Rehearsals are at Tim's Music Wednesday evenings. For details, go to www.capitolpopsconcertband.org Director Susan Hamre leads the Capitol Pops Concert Band today... and into a future of outstanding concert music for our community.

"Friends of the 59th" is a self-described musical ensemble made up of former members of the 59th Army Band, along with a few select friends. The 59th Army Band, also known as "The Governor's Own," was stationed in Sacramento for decades and enjoyed frequent appearances at the Carmichael Park Band Festival dating back to the 1980's.

While the 59th Army Band is no longer an active unit in the California Army National Guard, the band's legacy lives on in our listeners and in each of us. Former band members are in town to attend a reunion and we couldn't think of a better way to celebrate than listening to other area bands and making music of our own, just like the good ol' days We bring music to you under the direction of Retired Bandmaster (CW4) John W. Monks, Retired Bandmaster (CW4) Robert G. Becker, and Retired Associate Conductor (SSG) Joel Clark.

Musical Images provides wonderful
